

The Grain Vita Tester, which is produced from white PVC, is used in quality assurance to analyse the germination capacity in grain. It works fully automatic and microprocessor controlled.

With prepared grain samples the Aerne Analytic Grain Vita Tester can with the aid of a reagent liquid determine the germination capacity of a variety of types of corn in a few minutes. Grain can be cut with the Aerne Analytic Grain Cutter. These two instruments work perfectly together and ensure optimal results.

Grain Cutter for the preparation of the grain samples